CLASH REPORTED BETWEEN JAPS AND CHINESE

Unconfirmed Statement Says Japanese Troops Opened Fire Killing 29 Men.

(Special to The Herald)
Peking, April 20.—Reports from sources unusually reliable, but thus far officially unconfirmed, to the effect that on Sunday Japanese and Chinese troops clashed at Tsinan, the Chinese retreating after suffering a loss of 29 men, killed and wounded, reached here today. The report states that the Chinese troops were pursuing rebel marauders when they found their march opposed by Japanese troops who had been landed on Shantung Peninsula. The Japanese commander notified the Chinese that his troops would deal with the rebels, but the Chinese refused to abandon the pursuit. The Japanese are said to have opened fire upon the Chinese at a distance of 200 yards when the latter attempted to advance.

(Special to The Herald)
Syracuse, N. Y., April 20.—William Barnes rested his $50,000 libel suit against Theodore Roosevelt today after only five minutes of direct testimony. The plaintiff's only direct witness was John McGrath of Oyster Bay, private Secretary of Colonel Roosevelt, who testified that he took and delivered to the newspapers and press associations of New York the Roosevelt statement of which Barnes complained. TURKISH TORPEDO BOATS DESTROYED BY RUSSIANS

Two Ottoman Craft Strike Mines at Entrance to the Bosphorus--Czar's Army to Be Reinforced in the Carpathians By 600,000 Fresh Troops

(Special to The Herald)
London, April 20.—Two Turkish torpedo boats have been blown up by Russian mines at the entrance of the Bosphorus, according to a dispatch received today from Salonika. They were steaming in advance of the Turkish fleet which was returning from the Black Sea, when the explosion suddenly occurred, warning the remainder of the fleet of the mine fields.

(Special to The Herald)
Petrograd, April 20.—Six hundred thousand new Russian troops who had been held back until they could be given adequate equipment and training, are now being sent to the Carpathian front, the difficulties in the Carpathian campaign having rendered reinforcements necessary in that region. Some of the troops have been under continual fire for several weeks and the troops have been exhausted by forced marches through the rugged country.

The Russian army will have with it cannon made in the United States.

These guns were brought across the Pacific and through Siberia, have arrived at Lemberg and are being transported to the southwestern front from there.

TURKS DECLARE THEY ARE PREPARED FOR LAND ATTACK

(Special to The Herald)
Constantinople, April 20. (via Berlin and Amsterdam).—Recent Turkish successes at the Dardanelles have reassured the people and relieved the anxiety that was apparent here when the first allied attack was made against the straits fortifications. According to the war office eight warships of the Anglo-French fleet have been badly damaged or sunk by the Ottoman gunners since the allies opened the bombardment and live others less seriously damaged.

The forts, on the contrary, are declared to have suffered only minor damages, all of which have been repaired. Enver-Pasha, the Turkish minister of war, said today that the forces of troops at the Dardanelles forts had been doubled in anticipation of efforts of the allies to attack from the land side.

ITALIAN PREPARATIONS FOR WAR CONTINUE

(Special to The Herald)
On the Italian frontier, via Paris, April 20.—Fervish military preparations are proceeding along the entire Austrian-Italian frontier. Eight Italian corps are massed south of the frontier ready for the call to action. These 320,000 soldiers are first line troops and chiefly veterans who have seen service in the Tripolitan campaign.

When the International News Service correspondent left Rome, there was a general belief that war between Italy and Austria could not long be averted and Austrian newspapers shared the same opinion. The News states that all the public schools have been ordered closed and that they will be used as barracks to quarter German and Austrian troops. The train bearing the correspondent to the frontier passed through town after town in which Italian soldiers were seen. All officers wore the field service uniforms.

U. S. WILL STAND BY HER RIGHTS IN CHINA

It is said the United States pointed out that it had certain rights in China which were conferred by treaties and that it did not intend in any way to recede from them. The Peking dispatch adds that the Chinese believe the American note will

TWO OF THE BEST VAUDEVILLE ACTS

STRONG ATTRACTIONS PRESENTED AT THE PORTSMOUTH THEATRE FOR THE FIRST PART OF THE WEEK

Two of the best vaudeville acts seen in Portsmouth for some time are on the bill at the Portsmouth Theatre. The large audience on Monday evening was given a treat which has been unequalled for some time.

The first act was that of Joe Case, character comedian, who cleverly "took off" humorous character of various nationalities, among which was the Irishman, the Scotchman, the Hebrew, the Englishman and the German. He also favored the audience with the national dance of each country which were very gracefully performed. This act took well with the audience and greatly pleased them.

The three Loretas presented an excellent musical act, performing on such instruments as the violin, cornet, saxophone and trombone. All three are talented players, and their performance on these instruments was a rare treat for music lovers, and they received much well deserved applause.

Speaking of applause, it was for Julian Loretta, the youngest of the trio, to take the house by storm with his correct impersonation of Charlie Chaplin the funniest man in the world. The house was kept in a continuous uproar by the side-splitting imitations of the funny man.

The picture program was also very fine—the leader being "The Tramp" Charlie Chaplin featured, positively one of the funniest yet.

morning owing to the absence of the pastor, but the usual evening service was held.

Miss Pauline Knox passed Friday with her friend Mrs. Clarence Pearson of Portsmouth.

Mr. Harry Pace is critically ill at his home on Gilling road.

The friends of Mrs. Harriet Hoyt will be pleased to hear that she is improving.

The Jitney 'Bus.

Much is being heard just now about the jitney 'bus, which has been introduced in numerous cities, and for which many other cities are waiting. It is a coming thing, and just how important a part it is to play in the life of the times will be better understood after the innovation has further progressed. The term, "jitney 'bus," is used to designate any kind of an automobile that is run regularly over any route for the transportation of passengers at a five-cent fare. As stated, the business has been begun in various cities, but it is yet too early to predict the ultimate results. It is a new business and those who are entering it will have to find out what they can do and what they can afford to do before they or the public can know the practicability or impracticability of the enterprise.

That the jitney 'bus can ever successfully compete with the trolley railways is hardly to be expected or believed. Where rails are laid the trolleys will in all probability continue to serve the public satisfactorily, both as regards service and rates of fares, and it is to be doubted that the jitney will be able to compete with the car lines. But there are sections in every city not penetrated by trolley lines. In some of these sections there would be serious objection to the introduction of the trolley, and here the jitney may find a profitable field.

On the whole, however, it looks as if the suburban districts offer the best field for the jitney, and for the auto truck operated for the convenience of the public. Such trucks are already doing a successful business in many places, and, with accommodations for passengers added, cheap transportation will be supplied to sections that are now practically out in the cold.

The great improvement that has been made on highways in recent years invites the operation of motor vehicles for commercial purposes, and as the business increases and proves its value to the public the demand for better roads will become even louder than it is now.

There are large possibilities in connection with this new and interesting enterprise, but it is an enterprise that must be further developed before it can be correctly sized up. If it proves a success it will revolutionize conditions in many sections which have been practically sidetracked by modern developments, and the revolution will be of the welcome sort.

Wisconsin has enacted an anti-tipping law which imposes a substantial fine for giving or receiving what is commonly known as a tip. But why legislate for the suppression of a practice that is wholly within the control of those who do the giving? The chances are that the law will not make difference enough to pay for the paper on which it is written.

Violation of the election laws does not look so good to the Terre Haute, Ind., officials as it did last fall. Uncle Sam's agents have made serious trouble for those who participated in the crime, some of whom are now reflecting on the matter behind prison bars. And no honest man is wasting any pity on them.

On numerous flag days there are many people who inquire what the flags are displayed for, but there were no such inquiries when they appeared at half-staff last Thursday. Everybody knew it was the 50th anniversary of the death of one of the greatest men who ever lived in any age or any country—Abraham Lincoln.

A large quantity of baked beans sent from Baltimore to Boston to compete with the famous product of that city have been condemned by food inspectors. The Baltimoreans should have known better than to send baked beans to Boston. It is like carrying coals to Newcastle.

Many of the leading democrats in Washington are far from pleased with Secretary Bryan's effort to commit their party to the cause of national prohibition. And there are many democrats outside of the national capital who feel the same way about it.

All but one of the Piute Indians recently taken in charge by General Scott have been released on their promises to be good. Precisely the same terms on which many palefaces are released from custody.

BANCROFT BACK ON MAY 5TH

Superintendent of State Hospital Pleased at News and Accepts Re-indorsement.

Dr. Charles P. Bancroft who was reinstated as superintendent of the state hospital last week has wired Benjamin W. Couch of the board of control that he will arrive in Boston by the Portland Shipbuilding Company at Portland. It is his intention to meet the board of control immediately after his arrival at Concord and arrange for the resumption of his superintendency of the institution.

Dr. Bancroft expressed much satisfaction over the action of the board in reinstating him. Governor Spaulding in view of the report of the commission exonerating the former superintendent from the implied charges of the majority of the Felker board, appointed Dr. Bancroft for the place last Thursday night.

Messrs. Couch and William J. Aborn who were the minority members of the Felker board voted with the governor for his re-appointment. Purchasing Agent George W. Fowler and Dr. George W. McGregor thus were outvoted, the vote standing three to two.

MAY 5TH IS ARBOR DAY

Gov. Spaulding Issued Proclamation Choosing First Friday in May.

STATE OF NEW HAMPSHIRE
A Proclamation for Arbor Day

The trees of the forest, the trees of the orchard, and the trees of the roadside combine to form a great source of profit and pleasure, of benefit and beauty, for the State of New Hampshire. In recognition of the importance of this element of our state's natural resources and the desiring to enhance if possible, its development, I hereby proclaim Friday, May 7, as

ARBOR DAY

I call upon the people of New Hampshire, individually and in their various organizations, to observe the day in greater degree than ever before by public and private action. And I especially recommend that in our schools our boys and girls may be influenced and inspired to an active interest in the meaning of the day and the possibilities contained in its observance.

ROLAND H. SPAULDING,
Governor.

Given at the Council Chamber in Concord this 15th day of April A. D. 1915, and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and thirty-ninth.

By His Excellency, the Governor with the advice of the Council.

PORTLAND IS WAILING

Don't Want Lighthouse Boats Repaired at Portsmouth Navy Yard.

According to a Portland paper, the repairs on the lighthouse tender Lilaac for which the Portsmouth navy yard has been selected, will be carried out by the Portland Shipbuilding Company at Portland. It is his intention to meet the board of control immediately after his arrival at Concord and arrange for the resumption of his superintendency of the institution.

The lighthouse tender Lilaac is on the railway at the Cape for general repairs. The Portland Shipbuilding Company secured this contract in sharp competition with the Portsmouth navy yard which has been seeking to get all of this class of work possible, bidding so low that there was nothing in it but the bare cost of the labor and materials. There is a general protest among shipbuilding and repairing firms at this practice. They claim that it will tend to drive them all out of business and then when they are needed in some great emergency they won't be there to meet it.

The above article is certainly a misstatement of facts, as the figures and work recently performed on the lighthouse boat Hibiscus will show at the navy yard.

In taking a slap at the Portsmouth navy yard the Portland paper overlooks the fact that the Boston yard and other navy yards have done more or less bidding for work of this kind. The Portland and outside firms may be consoled by the fact that Secretary Daniels made it known in the early part of his administration that he intended that navy yards should have government ship work of all kinds if they could satisfy the department in the work and costs of the same. Western navy yards have for years done work on all kinds of craft including army transports, revenue cutters, lighthouse boats, etc., and the eastern yards will get it when they can.

The bids on the Lilaac were: Portsmouth yard, $555; Boston yard, $514; Portland Company, $395; Lockwood Manufacturing Company, $345; Bertelson and Peterson Engine Company, $285; Richard T. Green, $170.

"A PAIR OF SIXES"

Merry Farco Has Now Entered on its Big Fifth Month at the Wilbur Theatre, Boston

It has been some years since such a remarkably successful farce has been seen in Boston as "A Pair of Sixes," which begins its 15th wonderful week at the Wilbur Theatre, Boston, next Monday, April 26th. Quite appropriately a poet has paraphrased "The Midnight Ride of Paul Revere" to tell of the famous run of "A Pair of Sixes."

Listen good people and you shall hear Of the funniest farce in many a year; It came to town in the year 'one five And made us glad we were alive, Glad of its goodly cheer.

"A Pair of Sixes," they call the show, And it came to town five months ago. Breaking all records for a farce— Breaking all records for wholesome fun, With never a second that's slow.

Every paper has spread the news: "A Pair of Sixes" the show to choose! If happy hours of joyous laughter Is what you and your friends are after See this cure for the blues.

Some 200,000 folks or more— From Boston to old Maine's bold shore Have come to the Wilbur, and after awhile, They wear a real "won't-come-off" smile; You've a great treat in store.

And if Paul Revere were alive today And saw "A Pair of Sixes" play, He'd sing its praises up and down, Through every city, village and town: "Don't miss this show!" he'd say.

WE CAN TELL LATER

The Manchester Union says: Thomas A. Edson's daughter has been selected to christen the new submarine now in process of construction at the Portsmouth navy yard, and now all that remains to be decided is whether the vessel shall be christened with champagne, or with the amber-colored beverage for which Portsmouth is famous.

It might be done with grape juice or a bottle of famous Rye Spring water.

NASHUA MAN FOUND DEAD

Identification Not Complete But Thought to Be a Mr. Whitney.

The body of a man aged about 55 thought to be that of Mr. Whitney was found late Monday night lying within the grounds of the J. Frank Stark estate on Concord street, Nashua. The attending coroner diagnosed the cause as heart trouble.

The man died shortly after being found and before the ambulance had arrived. Medical Examiner B. G. Moran was called and after an investigation stated that death was due to heart trouble.

The body lay for several hours before identification was made, and then information concerning the man was incomplete. He is believed to be named Whitney and is thought to have lived with a sister, Mrs. Cummings who resides on Central street. He was hired several days ago by Foreman Orr of the Stark estate. The authorities were attempting to make a more complete investigation late tonight.

BOSTON LETTER

Boston, April 20.—The most important health conference that the commonwealth has ever seen will assemble in Boston this week, Thursday when some of the most prominent people engaged in the work will discuss various phases of the question relating to the work. The conference will assemble in Ford hall and will be the point meeting of the Massachusetts Association of the board of health and the newly organized health department of the state together with other bodies and individuals interested in public health. There will be two sessions, morning and afternoon, so far as the health department is concerned, the meeting is an initial one in its policy of public education. Dr. McLaughlin and his counsel, the latter of which includes a number of prominent educators, believe in telling the people the elements and principles of health measures. They realize the public opinion must be the foundation stone of the work of such a department, for no other can long maintain a course in which he has not the support of his people. In the morning the state officials will have their say. The meeting will be opened by Governor Walsh who from the beginning of his gubernatorial duties was interested in the reorganization of the state board of health. Speakers at the health conference will include President Emeritus Eliot of Harvard, Dr. W. T. Sedgwick, president of the American Public Health Association; Dr. A. J. McLaughlin, health commissioner of Massachusetts and Prof. Irving Fisher of Yale.

At the annual meeting of the Massachusetts Audubon Society here, the annual report showed that the organization had made large gains in membership during the year, and that its educational work is now being carried on by 12,000 school children. The society which is headed by Edward Howe Forbush, president, has a membership of more than 2000, all of them lovers and protectors of birds.

The problem of unemployment and pensions for the clergy will be among the important subjects to be discussed at the 13th annual session of the Massachusetts Episcopal Diocesan convention which will be held in Huntington hall, Wednesday. The program of the day will open with an address by Bishop Hamilton at the Cathedral of St. Paul and the business sessions will be held in Huntington Hall. The matter of unemployment will be the subject of a report submitted by the Rev. Malcolm Taylor of Taunton, secretary of the Social service commission.

"If I had my way I would vote to burn every copy of the report of the White Slave Commission," declared Senator Martin Hays of Brighton in the senate speaking against the order for the distribution of more copies of this report. Hays pointed out that 10,000 copies of the report had already been printed at the expense of the state, 3000 at the expense of the Watch and Ward Society and 2000 more at the expense of other persons, making 15,000 copies in all, and he wanted to know what had become of them.

Governor Walsh intends to send a special message to the legislature some time next week on the subject of taxation in view of the recent decision of the supreme court. The message will review the taxation system in Massachusetts and will demand drastic legislation to correct some of the faults of the law.

"C" FIVE WINS FINAL GAME

Closes Season by Defeating Colonials of This City.

The C Five of Kittery played their last basketball game of the season on Monday evening and defeated the Colonials of this city, 43 to 32. The game was a bitter one and hard fought all the way through, especially in the last period. The whole C Five team played an even, fast, all round game although Munson proved to be the chief point producer. Particular mention should be made of Thompson, Horan and Parslow for their hard efforts in holding their opponents' score off in fast style without a single hitch.

The lineup: C Five: Colonials: Horan; 15; Young; 10; Horan; 10; Parslow; 10; Thompson; 10; Munson; 10; Jenkins; 10; Webb; 10; Morrow; 10.

The summary: George C. Five 41; Colonials 12; goals from floor, Munson 2, Brackett 2, Thompson 2, Thompson, goals from foul, Munson 5, Parslow 3; Thompson 2, Horan. Time two 15, and one 10 minute periods. Umpire Sheridan; referee, Nollette; timer, Collier; scorer, Collier.

"The Birth of a Nation" was shown to a large audience again Monday night. This may be the last performance in Boston.

The Bikes are to join the Portsmouth Theatre on May 5th.

LITTLE BOWERY A. C. SCORES BIG SUCCESS

Good Singers, Clever Local Hits and Jokes Make a Minstrel Show That is Enjoyed by Large Audience

The Little Bowery A. C. gave their first minstrel show on Monday evening in Freeman's Hall before an audience that completely filled both down stairs and the spacious galleries.

For some time past the young men of this popular organization have been under the coaching of Harry Dowdell who is certainly deserving of great credit for the able manner in which the minstrel program was presented. Although their director Mr. Dowdell, was restricted to his home by illness, the boys grasped the situation and from the time the curtain went up until the grand finale there was not a dull moment and the hearty encores showered upon the youthful performers attested fully the favor which their efforts to entertain were being received.

The rise of the curtain disclosed a pretty stage setting, which was further set off by a string of college pennants extending the full length of the stage.

The centre man was John Timmons and he ably handled his part. The right and left was composed of "Teasey" Merrill and "Van" Thompson while "Nifty" Ryan and "Nap" Quirk occupied the opposite corner.

The circle was composed of "Hick" Trider, "Silent" Brault, "Loo" Bannigan, "Joe" Soule, "Len" Watts, Gil Godfrey, "Chin" Loughlin, "Chink" Watkins, Tom Linchey, "Andy" Collins, "Jim" Moran, "Bill" Crowley, "Bob" Little "Ed" Buckley, Woodbury Cammell.

The program was as follows:
Opening Chorus Company

Introducing on the right, Messrs. Merrill and Thompson; on the left, Messrs. Ryan and Quirk.

Solo, "Chinatown" Mr. James Watts.

End, "Mississippi Barbecue"

Mr. "Teasey" Merrill

Solo, "I Didn't Raise My Boy to Be a Soldier" .. Mr. Woodbury Cammell

Ballad, "Hide and Seek"

Mr. Grant Trider and Miss Lucille Jacques

"Equal Rights" .. Earle Hackett, John Herlihy

End, "When Grown-Up Ladies" ..

Mr. "Van" Thompson

Ballad, "You Can't Forget Your Mother"

Mr. Charles Watkins

Dance, Buck and Wing

Mr. Andrew Collins

End, "On the 5.15" .. Mr. Quirk

Town Topics .. Mr. "Nifty" Ryan

Solo, "If She Comes from Old New England" .. Mr. Joseph Soule

Grand Finale, "Newlyweds" ..

Mr. "Van" Thompson and Company

The opening chorus included a medley of popular airs and was sung with a snap that at once put the performers in favor with the audience.

James Watts rendered "Chinatown" in a pleasing manner and received deserved applause.

"Teasey" Merrill scored a hit with the end song "Mississippi Barbecue."

"I Didn't Want my Boy to Be a Soldier" was very ably rendered by Mr. Woodbury Cammell and he was forced to respond to several encores.

One of the prettiest features of the evening was the ballad "Hide and Seek" rendered by Mr. Grant Trider and Miss Lucille Jacques.

The ballad "You Can't Forget Your Mother" was finely rendered by Mr. Charles Watkins and his work was highly commented on as well as applauded.

The buck and wing dancing by Mr. Andrew Collins proved an agreeable surprise to the audience and received merited applause.

The end song "On the 5.15" by "Nap" Quirk was one of the features of the evening and he was forced to respond to several encores.

"Teasey" Merrill and Woodbury Cammell introduced a pleasing musical number the impersonation of the bashful darkey by Mr. Cammell being exceptionally good.

Something was started when Mr. Merrill appeared leading a large bull dog and displayed a sign "Growl for Portsmouth." He was followed by Mr. Thompson with a rooster under his arm and carrying a placard bearing the inscription "Growl for Portsmouth."

Mr. Quirk uncovered a box and took out a rat and displayed a card saying "Dig for Portsmouth." The climax was reached when Mr. Ryan appeared with a sledge hammer and a placard bearing the words "Bury the Hammer and Boast."

"Nifty" Ryan with his Town Topics got a few sly thrusts at the new Portsmouth bridge, the big Board of Trade sign and ex-Secretary of the Navy Meyers.

Mr. Joseph Soule rendered "If She Comes from Old New England" in a very able manner and "Van" Thompson and the entire company appeared to excellent advantage in the "Newlyweds."

Taken all in all, it is very doubtful if a better balanced amateur minstrel production has been seen in this city for many days and the members of the Little Bowery A. C. are to be congratulated upon the success attained in their first minstrel production.

Miss Mary Chase presided at the piano and proved a very able accompanist.

Harry Dowdell was manager, Louis Soule assistant manager and Herman Crompton stage carpenter.

Following the minstrel performance dancing was indulged in up to midnight the floor being in charge of the following:

Floor Director, Eben H. Haldsell.

Earle Hackett as the suffragette, and little John Herlihy furnished a bit of comedy that found favor with the audience and the local hits by the former were liberally applauded.

"Van" Thompson rendered "When Grown Up Ladies" in a manner that brought several encores and he was presented with a decorated fish and a bouquet of roses and pinks.

Assistant floor directors, Forrest Godfrey, David Quirk,

Aldes, John Timmons, Frederick Merrill, James Watts, Edgar Wilcox, John Herlihy, James Moran, David Quirk, Forrest Godfrey, John Breaud,

John Welch, Joseph Soule, Robert Little, Edward Buckley, Frank Brannigan,

The officers of the Little Bowery A. C. are as follows:

President, Forrest Godfrey.

Vice president, David Quirk.

Secretary, Earle Hackett.

Treasurer, Frederick Merrill.

Inner guard, James Loughlin.

Outer guard, Thomas Linchey.

RAILROAD BILL NOW BEFORE THE HOUSE

By Its Provisions Consolidation of Leased Lines of the B. & M. is Eliminated

Concord, April 19.—The Judiciary committee of the house has perfected its railroad bill, and it is now ready for the consideration of the members of the house. The bill is drawn along the lines to afford relief to the Boston and Maine railroad, such as it has asked for in the numerous bills which have heretofore received consideration with the exception that it does not grant authority to consolidate with the New Hampshire leased lines. What the bill gives authority for may be summarized as follows:

Authorizes the Boston and Maine to fund or pay off its floating indebtedness by issuing stocks, common or preferred, or bonds, or both; mortgaging its property and franchises, existing or hereafter acquired; by selling or pledging its treasury assets, comprising stocks of leased lines, notes of the Maine Railroad company, etc.; by making an assessment on its stockholders in any lawful manner or by increasing and reducing its capital stock, as was provided by the bill which the house defeated.

The Boston and Maine is also authorized to negotiate for a reduction in rentals paid to leased lines as a means of reducing the fixed charges, when the federal trustees have insisted, are the obstacle to Boston and Maine properties.

If any or all of these expedients fail the Boston and Maine is authorized to go through liquidation by means of a sale of its property and franchises to a reorganized corporation, under substantially the same terms as the draft of house bill No. 494.

In other words the Boston and Maine is to be given full and complete authority to use its own property for the purpose of working out of its troubles, but is forbidden to consolidate the New Hampshire leased lines into its own system under any terms.

NEW YORK HIPPODROME

New spectacular effects, requiring extended employment of the famous tank and iridescent fountains and a condensed version of the ever-popular light opera, "Chimes of Normandy" ushered in the current week at the New York Hippodrome. The cast includes Katherine Irving, Bernice Mershin Vernon Dabhart, Harry Luckstone and William F. Myers, supported by the large Hippodrome chorus.

"Glimpses of Art"—the living picture reveals recently introduced at the Hippodrome—have proven such a popular feature that they are being retained. New subjects have been added to the program.

Changes and additions have been made in the symphony orchestra which contributes a complete concert programme to the bill.

The moving picture programme includes a Charles Chaplin comedy, the usual topical weekly, scenic features, "Pictorial Greece" in natural colors and a film production of W. A. Brady's successful play "Woman and Wine" with William Elliott in the stellar role.

This standard old play with its strong sentimental appeal, its tense situations, heart interest and true old time melodramatic "punch" has all the elements that go to make up an ideal moving picture.

Arthur Shirley, the author of the play took his inspiration from a French source and the scenes are laid alternately in New York and Paris, the underworlds of which great cities are both drawn on for material. "Dick" Seymour, the son of an artist has a pretty sweetheart, and he comes into some money; a combination of circumstances that should make for happiness. Instead of which the "Great White Way" and an unscrupulous girl claim him. Thence to Paris (for his money) and more "Woman and Wine" with the immediate result that he finds himself charged with a murder that he did not commit.

His blind father and his sweetheart are loyal to him, however, and being freed of the charge of murder he forsakes his evil ways, and all end happily.

NEW FLAG STAFF IS DEDICATED

INTERESTING CEREMONIES HELD AT PORTSMOUTH YACHT CLUB
IN CONNECTION WITH
LADIES' NIGHT

The Portsmouth Yacht Club's new flag staff, presented to the club by Commodore Luke W. Ashworth, was raised and dedicated Monday with formal ceremonies. After being put in place the yacht club burgee and the American Yacht Ensign were hoisted to the masthead, the "Star Spangled Banner" being played and a salute fired from the gun.

The flag pole was formally dedicated by a neat speech. Red lights were set and the pole became the property of the club.

Following the ceremonies, at which many ladies were present, all adjourned to the club house, where daisies, music and refreshments were enjoyed until a late hour. The affair was the annual "Ladies' Night" at the club and those familiar with the brand of hospitality usually displayed by the Portsmouth Yacht Club knew that all enjoyed a fine evening.

The pole presented by Commodore Ashworth is placed on a specially constructed platform, 41 feet high. There is a yard 22 feet above the platform, 17 feet long. The topmast is so arranged that it may be hoisted in the winter. Relying pins are placed on each side of the platform on the handrail to make fast the halyards.

The mast is stepped in an iron stop made fast to a big spike and the whole made secure by iron clamps.

While on the subject it might be mentioned that the Yacht Club Gun has been named "The Charlie Bailey."

"GETS-IT" A SURE SHOT FOR ALL CORNS

Use Two Drops — and They Vanish.

When corns make you almost die with your boots on, when you try to walk on the edge of your shoes to try to get away from your corns, you're way behind time if you have not used "GETS-IT." It's the corn cure of the century.

"Murder! Everybody Tries to Step on My Corn!" Use "GETS-IT" and You'll Have No Corns to Be Stepped On.

The new way, the sure, painless, simple way. It makes a fellow really feel foolish after he's used toe-cutting knives, corn-biting ointments, toe-bauding bandages, blood-bringing razors, knives, files, scissors, jabbers and what-nots, when he uses just 2 drops of "GETS-IT" and sees his corn vanish. The difference is divine. Just try it. You won't wince when you put on your shoes in the morning. "GETS-IT" is sure, "gets" any corn, callus, wart or bunion.

"GETS-IT" is sold by druggists everywhere, 25c a bottle, or sent direct by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago.

The Short Cut to Pipe-Joy

If you have squandered your youth looking for smoke joy among the desolating peppergrass brands, come over in our yard and try a pipe o' good old Prince Albert. Or, if you like yours rolled into a little paper pipe, smoke it your way, but make it of P. A. There's no two guesses about the pleasingness and goodness of the national joy smoke

It is the smoke fuel gentle and lovable, made so by a patented process, controlled exclusively by us, that takes out the bite and leaves a cool, free-burning, fragrant smoke. Stuff your old pipe to the brow with some of this ace-high tobacco or roll it in a cigarette and see how easy it feels on the tongue.

The tidy red tin, 10c; toppy red bag, 5c; the pound and half-pound tin humidor. Then, there's the 16-oz. P. A. crystal-glass humidor that's bang-up for home and for the office. You've always a fresh supply on hand, because the sponge in the lid keeps the tobacco pipe-fit.

CREW OF THE GOLDEN RULE LANDED IN ST. JOHNS, N. F.

St. John's, N. F., April 19.—The crew of the American barkentine Golden Rule, which was abandoned and set on fire off Cape Race two weeks ago after being driven more than 1000 miles off her course, was brought here today by the schooner Olinde, on her trip from Barbadoes.

The Golden Rule, with lumber, sailed from Mobile on March 17 for Buenos Aires, but was blown far to the northward by a succession of southwest gales in which she sprang leak. When sighted by the Olinde, the barkentine was in a sinking condition. The crew set fire to their vessel when they abandoned her, so she might not be a menace to navigation.

DISCOURAGED LOVERS FOUND DEAD TOGETHER

Auburn, N. Y., April 19.—The bodies of Arthur L. Clark, 55 years old, a former employee of the Eastman Kodak Company in Rochester and Catherine Thippie, 22 years old of this city, were found yesterday on the shore of Owasco lake. A note pinned to the girl's coat read:

"We have nothing to live for and will be better off dead."

It indicated they had taken poison. Coroner A. J. Forman learned that the couple had wanted to marry but that relatives objected. Clark left here last week, ostensibly for Rochester.

I had other troubles which left no doubt in my mind that my kidneys were disordered. I finally procured Doan's Kidney Pills at Philbrick's Pharmacy and, through their use every symptom of the trouble disappeared. I willingly confirm the endorsement I have previously given, praising Doan's Kidney Pills."

HOT FIGHT IN D. A. R. CONVENTION

MRS. GEORGE GUERNSEY ASPIRES TO SUCCEED MRS. WILLIAM C. STORY AS PRESIDENT

Washington April 19—Mrs. George T. Guernsey of Independence, Kansas, today opened her contest to succeed Mrs. William C. Story of New York as President General of the Society of the Daughters of the American Revolution, at the 23rd annual convention of the order, held in the Continental Memorial Hall.

President Wilson is on the program for an address to the daughters, while other speakers were H. Jules Jasser and the French ambassador, John Barrett, director general of the Pan-American Union; Mrs. John Hayes Hammond, wife of the mining engineer and Rogers Ballard Thurston, President of the Sons of the American Revolution. Bishop Harding of Washington delivered the invocation.

Chief interest centers this year in the contest for the presidency general of the society. For the first time in several D. A. R. conventions there are but two candidates, Mrs. Guernsey and Mrs. Story. For the past few days Washington hotel parlors and women's clubrooms have been buzzing with pre-election talk, and the election is expected to be a close one.

Tonight Mrs. Story will hold a reception in honor of the delegates at the Continental Memorial Hall and Wednesday afternoon President Wilson will receive the delegates in the east room of the White House. There will be several business sessions during the week with reports to be read and resolutions to be adopted.

The fight between the administration and the anti-administration candidates has grown warm. Mrs. Guernsey has issued a platform, in which she makes many charges against the present administration.

In her platform Mrs. Guernsey says it is an outrage that Mrs. Mary C. Russell, historian general, who has switched to the Guernsey side, should have been humiliated, first by taking the records of her office away from her and second, by being refused acknowledgment by the national board, of which she is a member.

Plank No. 4, which innocently enough reads "No mileage for officer or committee chairman," has enough material to fill a whole day with lively interest. The mileage account of the present general will probably be attacked.

One of the seats promised is in the plank which calls for the publication of the official organ of the society by a responsible firm. The magazine might be one of the "powder" kind, as thoroughly it served to set each annual congress aflame. Last year the chief battle centered about the chairman.

TWO POLANDERS IN TROUBLE

ARRESTED EARLY THIS MORNING CHARGED WITH AN ASSAULT ON A FELLOW COUNTRYMAN

Shortly after midnight Joseph Gresiek, a Pole, came to the police station and reported that he had been assaulted by two of his fellow countrymen on Russell street. He had several cuts on his head and face and bore evidence that he had been roughly handled. Captain Burke dispatched officers Doherty and Anderson with the complainant, and two brothers John and Paul Prokora, were taken into custody and will be arraigned in police court today. It is alleged that the trouble arose over a dispute as to money matters and the brothers used a beer bottle to convince Gresiek that he was in the wrong.

SUNSET LEAGUE PREPARATION

Elks Will Be Represented by Fast Team After One Year's Absence.

If present plans hold good the Sunset League will open its season about the 20th of May. The board of directors will meet on Friday evening to confer with representatives of the various teams and to make out the schedule.

The diamond at the South playgrounds is being cleaned up and put in shape and work on the new grandstand will be commenced soon.

The present outlook for the season is an excellent one. As far as known, all teams in the Sunset League last year will be again on the schedule. There will be an additional team in the league this year, that of the Elks, who will again enter the league.

This organization was represented in the league during the season of 1913, but last year didn't put a team on the field. They are keeping under cover some new finds, and with these expect to have a successful season.

Manager Woods of the P. A. C., last year's champions, is lining things up and will enter a strong team this season. It is also said that the Consolidation Coal Company have some speed boys to put into the uniform, and this organization expects to make a better showing than that made in 1914.

GAVE ADDRESS ON SOUTH AFRICA

H. J. Stander Spoke Before Methodist Brotherhood.

The regular meeting of the Methodist Brotherhood was held in the vestry of the Miller avenue Methodist church on Monday evening with an unusually large attendance.

Several vocal and instrumental solos were rendered by Miss Merle Davis and Mr. Paul Nickerson, but the chief feature of the evening was the talk on South Africa given by Mr. H. J. Stander of the Portsmouth High school faculty.

His short time ago secured a degree from that institution.

Mr. Stander is a very able speaker and familiar with his subject. He spoke upon the people, the customs of the country, the political situation, etc. His talk was delivered in an excellent manner and proved to be intensely interesting to all those fortunate enough to be present.

Following the address of Mr. Stander refreshments of ice cream and fancy wafers were served.

CHEMICAL OUT FOR SECOND TIME

Serious Fire Again Threatens Haven Springs Pumping Station.

Shortly before noon today an alarm called the chemical to a brush fire at the Haven Springs Pumping Station. This fire is supposed by many to be the same that was burning Monday afternoon and the department returned before it was entirely put out.

Dense clouds of smoke were seen to rise from the heavy brush and grass and reports from York stated that it was thought there that the whole city was in flames.

In the fire of Monday afternoon several acres were burned over and the city pumping station was seriously endangered. The blaze this afternoon jumped across the road and caught in the woodland property of Charles B. Hodgdon, doing considerable damage to a large area.

The fire is still burning but is thought to be under control although 120 acres or so have been burned over, and 50 cords of cut wood belonging to the city were destroyed.

Chief Woods was upon the scene early and directed the work of the fire fighters. As there was no chance to use water the fire had to be fought by the digging of trenches, and with spades and brooms.

Members of the crew of Hose No. 4, as well as the chemical did good work in fighting the flames.

UNTIL WOMEN VOTE

The New York canners last week pushed through the State Senate, as they had previously pushed through the Assembly, the bill permitting them to work women and children seventy-two hours a week instead of sixty. The canners were at all times in evidence, but no representatives of women were there.

Throughout the non-suffrage States action is constantly being taken against women's interests and against women's wishes. The New Hampshire Legislature refused to pass a meat inspection bill which would have prevented the entrance into the State of meat that is too impure for Massachusetts. The Maine House killed mothers' pension bill in Massachusetts women, who have scrubbed the State House for years were refused inclusion in the pension system for other State employees.

The women's point of view will never be held in a State Legislature for any length of time until women can vote for the members of that Legislature.
